

Climate Bulletin

A Quaterly Newsletter from Ghana Climate Innovation Centre

DECEMBER 2022: ISSUE NO. 4

ABOUT GCIC

Editorial

In this edition of the GCIC's quarterly newsletter, we share content from the GCIC's Climate Focus Documentary, Entrepreneurs' Graduation and a Spotlight feature amongst other stories.

Happy reading!

GCIC EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR SPEAKS AT TFS – CANADA'S INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

The Chief Executive of the Ghana Climate Innovation Centre, Rukayatu Sanusi, was recently invited to speak at the prestigious Toronto French School (TFS – Canada's International School) in Ontario, facilitating a session with an economics class of 90 students on The Political Economy of Climate Change, in the school's Learning Forum. She drew from her rich experience of work in the Ghanaian sustainability space, using the...

READ MORE

WORLD BANK PARTNERS WITH GCIC TO LAUNCH GHANA COUNTRY CLIMATE AND DEVELOPMENT REPORT

The World Bank Country Director, Pierre Laporte, at the launch of the Ghana Country Climate and Development Report (CCDR), stated that 'only prompt action can change the climate change trajectory'. He went on to explain that without action, one million people would fall into poverty due to erratic precipitation, rising temperatures, land degradation and pollution...

READ MORE

GHANA CLIMATE INNOVATION CENTRE COHORT 6, GRADUATE

In February 2022, nineteen (19) entrepreneurs from across Ghana were inducted into Cohort 6 of GCIC's incubator, and School of Sustainable Entrepreneurship. Nine months later, on the 23rd of November 2022, the Cohort has exited the incubator, at a ceremony to mark the event. The cohorts' sectors of operation span across domestic waste management, energy efficiency, greening and climate smart agriculture and are in eight (8)...

READ MORE

2022 CLIMATE FOCUS DOCUMENTARY - ROPRYN LIMITED

The GCIC Climate Focus Documentaries are a series of videos that showcase selected GCIC supported enterprises, discusses their work and the impact they have on the environment and the communities in which they operate. In this video, cohort 6 entrepreneur, Prince Manu Yeboah tells us the origin of his Company, Ropryn Limited and how it was formed to support the value chain development of fruits and vegetables to meet..

WATCH VIDEO

ENTREPRENEUR SPOTLIGHT

GCIC'S COHORT 6, NASAM BRAND, SIGNS WITH EKI ENERGY SERVICES LIMITED

Nasam Brand, a Cohort 6 member and a Ghanaian clean stove manufacturer, which designs and manufactures clean wood stoves, gas stoves and charcoal powered cookstoves has recently signed a six-month contract with EKI Energy Services Limited (EKIESL). Based in India, "EKIESL" is a Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) listed company, working in the realm of "climate change, carbon credit...

READ MORE

The Ghana Climate Innovation Centre (GCIC) is a cutting-edge national business incubator located in Ghana. The Centre is an institute of Ashesi University, one of the country's premier tertiary institutions. The Centre was established in 2016 to support Ghanaian entrepreneurs and new ventures involved in developing profitable and locally appropriate solutions to climate change mitigation and adaptation. GCIC has incubated over 101 businesses with 31 being women-owned or led.

CONNECT WITH US

Ghana Climate Innovation Centre | 198 Osu Badu Crescent, West Airport, Accra.

This email was sent by: Ghana Climate Innovation Centre. If this email has been forwarded to you by a friend, please contact info@ghanacic.org to receive the newsletter directly in future. The articles and images in this newsletter do not necessarily represent the views of Ghana Climate Innovation Centre. If you would like to change your marketing preferences or do not wish to receive marketing communications from Ghana Climate Innovation Centre, please click this link to access your preference centre. We are committed to respecting your privacy. You've received this email because you've subscribed to our newsletter.

Unsubscribe

