

Dear Reader,

In the first quarter of 2025, we are thrilled to bring you the latest news from the Ghana Climate Innovation Centre (GCIC). In this edition, we highlight inspiring insights, impactful events, and key updates as we continue to lead the way in climate innovation.

Highlights of this quarter's issue include Ashesi's latest Intelligence Brief on Collaboration and Networking for Climate Entrepreneurs in Africa and a successful side event at the World Bank/IMF Annual Meetings in October 2024, showcasing scalable climate solutions in Ghana and Africa. Don't miss GCIC intern, Nathan Ashiagbors' story as well as an article by our Gender Consultant Amanobea Boateng celebrating female entrepreneurs driving growth and sustainability.

Thank you.

GCIC Hosts Panel Discussion in Partnership with Halcyon at 2024
October World Bank/IMF Meeting in Washington DC

The International Labour Organization (ILO) estimates that the green economy could generate 24 million jobs by 2030 and Climate Innovation Centres (CICs) play a crucial role in supporting green entrepreneurs to scale up. Watch GCIC's October 2024 World Bank/IMF Annual Meetings side event, Accelerating Growth for Greater Climate Impact, where Ruka Sanusi, Executive Director of the Ghana Climate Innovation Centre, engages in a conversation with Mike Ehst, Senior Private Sector Specialist at the World Bank, Stacey Swann, CEO, Resilient Earth Capital and Daniel Barker, CEO, Halcyon, here.
